THE WAR.

The war in the Balkans was resumed on 3rd Feb. the failure of all the peace negotiations being regarded by everyone here with unfeigned regret, says the Director. " London and China Express " From the meagre news to hand-for no war cor. respodents are permitted by either of the combatants-it seems c'ear that the Bulgarianshave two main objects in view-the zeduction of Adrianople, and the capture of the forts commanding the entrance to the Dard-nelles, su as to give the Greek fleet access to Constantinople. Telegrams to hand show that, while bombarding the undersigned has been appointed Trustee Adrianople and p rtly setting it on fire, they have also despatched two forces which are attempting to join hands for combined attack on the Turkish army of 500,00 men which occupies the Peninsul Gallipoli and protects the Dardanelles from an attack by land. At Sofia it is claimed that in two days' fighting the Bulgarians have had great success, driving the Turks before them. With the reopening of hostilities the Allies have an oven greater superiority in numbers over the Turks than at the beginning of the war, and the position of Turkey is a very desperate on a. She seems to be rapidly drifting to ruin and bankruptcy, for there is hardly a stiver left in the 'Ireasury, and the ordinary services of the Government have been suspended.
The Young Turk Cabinet are surrounded by the greatest difficulties, not the least being the fact that, by shooting Nazim Pasha, they have aroused the bitter enmity of a large portion of the Army. There have been free fights, both at Chatalia and at Gallipoli, and 150 wounded suffering from bayonet wounds are said to have arrived at Constantinople.

The rate of the military dollar for the quarter commencing 1st April, 1913, has been fixed at two shillings and one penny for all payments fixed in steeling which have to be made at Hongkong and on the China station.

Inspector Dymond charged eighteen men before Mr. Hazeland to-day with naing No. 19 Sai Yuen Lane as an opium divay. The Inspector said that this place had been used as a resort for street loafers. Some of the men had recently been before the Court one of the defendants climbed up a water pipe, and it took an hour to get him down by ladders. The only thing these men seemed to object to was a bath, The first defendant, who was convicted of keeping the divan, was fixed $260 or three mouther hard labour, and the remainder mere fined $3 each or seven days.

KWANGTUNG NEWS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A DRASTIC SUGGESTION.

way of meeting this big deficiency.

The papers suggest that there be a substantial diminution of salaries all round, except that all salar es that amount to ten dollars per month and less shall be left untouched. On the other hand it is urged that all incomes, from three hundred dollars per month, and upwards, be diminish ed to the extent of one half. By this means it is believed that there will be a saving of about twelve million dollars each year. It addition to this is urged that there be some heavy taxation imposed upon articles of luxury, which the rich only use, and which the rich can well afford to pay for, and which they should be to enjoy them. Thus we have a new err auggested, which is that the rich be made to pay more per head towards the expenses of the Government, and that there be a remission of the small impositions which really amount to little after the expense of collecting them be deducted. It is thought that it is likely that in the near future the

be devised whereby this result may be

MOURNING FOR THE LATE EMPRESS

DOWAGER.

There seems to be a touch of irony, if not of satire, in the instructions issued by the President of the Republic in regard to the mourning that has been ordered for the late Empress Dowager, Lung Yue. It is pointed out that as she was of reigning house, but not at present of the reigning house of China, the mourning shall

he according to the rules and etiquette amongst nations that is followed by one nation when paying respect for deceased royalty of another, shall be observed. Thus it appears that it is the rule in a case of this kind that flags over all government buildings and so forth shall be flown at half must for twenty-seven days. Likewise all official people shall wear a band of black craps on their left arms for the same time, and also that they shall attach some crape to the handles of their swords. It is interesting to note that not only does the duration coincide with foreign usage, but the material to be used is that adopted in CHEPRISES IN THE SECOND BOUNDA Kay in the "Referee" of Feb. 2 says :--Unlike the experience of the first mand of the F. A. Cup, we had, happily, only one abandonment in the second series and that came about through the overgrowding of the Manchester City ground, where the crush was so great that the spectators encroached on the playing arena. For a rime the officials prevailed upon the intruders to keep out of the ground and the touch lines, but eventually the tierhad to be given up. Sunderland leading by 2 goals to 0 at the time of the abandonment. There were many surprising results in the round, which, by the way, produced four drawn games in addition to the abandonment at Hyde Road. In the first place, the form of West Ham United against West Bromwich Albica was good enough to warrant the opinion that the East London team would put up a good fight in its tie with Aston Villa, even though the game was to be played at Birmingham. But such was not the case, and the Villa won Arsenal, in the tie with Liverpool, went down on its own ground by the large margin. of 4 goals to 1. There were other uphesvals of form, and, as usual, the course of the Cup proceedings cannot be compared with toam which, in the past season or two, has: not cared a jot for League orthodoxy, but. has come along with flying coleurs; in Cup-There are, however, many unpriced speci- ties, lost yesterday. The net result of the round—so far as the definite results are concerned—is to bring six First League Clubs, two Second League teams, and three Southern League sides into the third round. MR. MATHESON LANG.

Westward "Ho!"

Just prior to starting for Miss Horniman's Manchester Repertory Theatre. where they made their English reappearance on February 1st in "Westward Ho!" Mr. and Mrs. Matheson Lang talked about their projects to a ".Referce " representative.

" Westward Ho! " said Mr. Lang. is, of course, adapted from Charles Kingsley's famous romance. Miss Peggy Webling, the adapter-or adaptrixbrought it to me when I was playing at the Lyceum under the late Mr. Ernest Carpenter. I was playing Pete at the time. No doubt the play would have been produced at the Lyceum but for Mr. Carpenter's lamented death. Therefore, Westward Ho!" did not get a public show till we presented it at Johannesburg. where it ran three weeks to enormous business-quite an unusual thing out there with a brand-new play.

"Just before we produced this Kingsley drama a strange thing happened. For some time before we left England Sir Herbert Tree had wanted to engage me to play Drake at His Majesty's. Nothing had been settled, however, but after we were well into our tour out there I was cabled for to come back to play Drake. Of course I could, not manage that, as I was booked so long. But by a strange coincidence I was then rehearing this play on the same subject, 'Westward

"Our London reappearance will be made in 'Westward Ho!' at the Palladium on February 24. We give a month's matinees there. Our idea is to bring Miss Webling's play to, a regular West-End theatre later. I am now negotiating for such a theatre.

"Yes; I play Amyas Leigh. My wife plays the Indian girl Ayacanora.' "I don't come on till late," said Miss MESSES JARDINE, MATHESON & Co., Britton; "but when I do I make up for it. It is a splendid, picturesque char

"We have a strong cast," added Mr. Lang, "Mr. Edward O'Neill plays a Spanish pirate; Mr. Percival Stevens, a fat, comic sailor; Mr. Halliwell Hobbes, Don Guzman, a haughty Spanish grandee; Mr. Clarence Blakiston, a light-comedy character: Mr. Harry Ashford, Salvation

Yeo; and Miss Dorothy Ripley, the heroine, Rose of Saltoun." "Any special alterations? Yes; Miss Webling has departed from the book a good deal, especially as to the prologue. Also she shows Ayacanora first as a child l'Ilost after John Oxenham's death. That part will, of course, be played by a child. "Big. scenes? Well, I should call the INTERNATIONAL DANKING Inquisition and the Sea Fight very big scenes. In fact, it is a big spectacular production. "Any other plays in hand? Yes; we have several very promising romantic dramas. One is of a light Prisoner of

Brain Fag, Nervous Exhaustion-

Just a change of opinion was enough to give Mr. W. King his present prosperity, for he realised in the nick of time that his way was not curing his brain fag and nervous exhaustion, so he tried the Phosferine way. Mr. King's method was to igners his despondency and feeling of collapse, and persuade himself there was nothing unusual in the painful fatigue the lightest effort to work cost him, until, as he steadily got worse, he resolved to drop his own opinion and see what Phosferine could do. The result was so astonishingly beneficial, even after a few doses, that the brain fag and nervous exhaustion ceased entirely, enabling him to do more work than before and yet not feel the strain. This remarkable advantage is seen in the extraordinary energy and vigour of Mr. King's public speaking, and so amazingly have his prospects improved since his speedy recovery, that he declares he had to come forward with the evidence of the magnificent benefit he derived from Phosferine.

Quite Gone-Never Return.

Mr. W. J. King, School House, Trumpington Road, Forest Gate, E., writes:- I am writing to add my name to the list of those people who have found Phosferine to be the Greatest of all Tonics. Some time back I was very much run down through overstrain brought on by incessant bodily exercise and mental application. The usual tendency of mankind is to give up some of their work, have a rest, and at the same time take medicine, so I endeavoured to keep going on without seeking advice, but as I was getting werse I found that policy would not do. Having heard many friends speaklabout Phosferine, and one in particular offering me some. I decided to give it a trial. Purchasing a 2/6 bottle, I began to doctor myself. The result not only astonished me, but others also noticed how much better I was, even although I had only taken a few doses. I found I could do the same amount of work easier, and at present am able to do more than before and yet not feel the strain. I have a good deal of public speaking, and I find an occasional dose of Phosferine is a great benefit"-May 28, 1912.

Stop taking Drugs and Stimulants!

SANATOGEN

You want for your Nerves."

Such is the modern physician's advice to . victims of nervous disorders.

In his book on "Nerve Energy," Dr. Claude L. Wheeler says: "Many people have, through ignorance of the consequences, become victims of a habit of taking drugs and stimulants. To such people Sanatogen offers a form of force that may be drawn upon without danger. Sanatogen, in a perfectly normal way, creates new tissue and nerve cells. It builds up, reconstructs and renders stable."

Similar statements have been made by over 16,000 practising physicians, who certify to the unique value of Sanatogen in overcoming. such nervous symptoms as:

Palpitation of the Heart Insomnia Depression of Spirits Morbid Anxiety Irritability of Temper Easily-induced Physical and Mental Fatigue. Nervous Dyspepsia

Among the many famous people who have publicly testified to the value of Sanatogen is the Right Hon. Sir John Gorst, Privy Councillor. to the King of England, who writes:-"Sir John Gorst wishes to say he has long been acquainted with the great merits of Sanatogenhas taken it with excellent results, and when necessary will certainly take it again. It was also used by a daughter of his with great benefit."

If you, who read this, are run down or suffering from any of the symptoms mentioned, do not s seek the false aid of drugs and stimulants, but begin at once to rebuild and revitalise your nervous system by means of a course of Sanatogen." It is sold by all Chemists.

Write to-day for a Free Copy of "The Art of Living," by Dr. Andrew Wilson. This interesting book tells you all about Sanatogen, and also contains a great deal of valuable advice on health topics. Write at once, mentioning this paper, to the manufacturers of "Sanatogen, Messrs. A. Wulfing & Co., 6, Kiukiang Road, Shanghai.

He admitted that the antiquated methods of China tes production assisted largely to the undoing of the Chinaman's produce, but notwithstanding the smallness of the consumption of China tea in this country; it was surprising to know that during the season 1911-12 the total export of this ten amounted to two hundred million ibs.

Mr. Bunting thought that great harm would be done to British grown tea if we ventured into tariff reform. This would give the Chinaman just the opportunity that he could not possibly miss during the coming regeneration of his country. What, he asked, would be the position of the British tea-grower if the new Chi- can manager, has paid a flying visit to neso Government leased to a syndicate, this country and the Continent. BUDDHISH IN ENGLAND. The Buddhist Society of Great Britain and Ireland, which was inaugurated in London in 1908, has decided upon a vigorous compaign in this country. Up to now their difficulty has been to fin n man of sufficiently high educational attainments to establish as the head the sect. In 1910 a visit was paid London by Ananda Metteya, whose real name was Alan Macgregor, who some years before had been converted to Buddhism, while on a visit to Ceylon for the benefit of his health. Ananda would have been the very man for the English Buddhists but asthma provents him from staying in his native land. Consequently a Bhikkhu has to be found, and an advertisement appeared in the "Times." last week for a young man, graduate of a British University, to proceed to Ceylon and be trained for subsequent service in this country. The officials of the Society in London are not without hope that a suitable man will come forward. There is already a large sum of money available for the establishment of a temple an monastery in the metropolis, and branches are at work at Oxford, Cambridge, Dub lin, Liverpool and other large towns. It is not proposed at first to observe strictly here all the practices and customs of the Buddhist monastic life. The aim is to scoustom the English people to them gradually...

IDEALS OF EMPIRE Sir George Luces gave on Saturday an interesting address on "Some Features of the British Empire." One section of the community, he said, had boaten the big drum and bragged about the Empire in a rather vulgar way, and there was another section who had made light of the Empire as a sort of reaction against the other side. There was now growing up yet a third section who took a proper view of the Empire, regarding it as a great and responsible inheritance received from our fore-fathers and striving, so far as England went, to leave it a little better than they found it.

Skirts, however, will not be cheaper in consequence, for while manufacturers discuss the disastrous effects of the shorter skirt, customers always find the extra space charged for in the bill. Succession duty was paid last year in France on 359,113 fortunes, the total value of which amounted to 5,761,724,713 france, a little more than £230,000,000. which is more than the indemnity paid by France to Germany at the end of the Franco-German War.

During the year 681 " millionaires " died. Three only left over £2,000,000 each; nine left between £400,000 and £2,000,000; 30 left from £200,000 £400,000; 245 left from £80,000 £200,000; 379 from £40,000 to £80,000; 832 left between £20,600 and £40,000 1.675 left £10,000 to £20,000: 4,878 left from £4,000 to £10,000, and so on. Curiously enough, this progression is not constant right through, for whereas 105,960 persons left between £80, and £400, only 95,522 left from a franc to £20, another proof of the saving capacity of the working classes.

CHINA AND MONGOLIA

"THE total area of Mongolia, which extends from the Great Wall (of China) in the South to Siberia in the north, and from the Khingang mountains in the east to Russian Central Asia in the west, is estimated at 1,076,000 English square miles, with nomadic" Mongol and Kalmuck population variously computed at 1,750,000 to 3,250,000. In the thirteenth century of the Christian era the Mongolian ruler, Jenghiz Khan, held sway over an empire from the China Sea to the banks of the Dueiper, and the vast area of the Chinese to six. dominions is but a portion of the former Mongolian Empire." This is what may be read of Mongolia, which until recently-indeed by many today-was looked upon as a Depenreason, too, as the Government, such as it was, had its source in Peking, from whence came the appointments apparent, however, that the suzerainty l of China, if it may be so termed, has never been of a very binding nature and, indeed, of late, has been little more than nominal. If there was any doubt regarding that, point-and China's, recent action seems to indicate that she had some doubt on the point—it will probably be very effectually removed by what Reuter describes as the "curt," reply—but what seems to us to be more "caustic than curt from Mongolia to President Yuan Shih Kai. "I can do my work now like any other woman, but before I dreaded even to think of it. I felt relief after the first two or three washes with the Cuticura Boap and applications of the Cuticura Ointment, and now, after using only one and one-half boxes of the Ointment my hands are soft and white. The Cuticura Boap we use daily, it is so soothing to the skin. Cuticura Boap and Ointment cured my hands when doctors said I never should get them healed."
